

Privacy Policy

Sugar Sugar:

We collect personal information from you, including information about your:

Name
Blood Sugar levels over time
Diary entries.
Number of emails sent daily

We only do this with your permission when you access the capsule for the first time, if the amount of data that we collect changes you will be notified.

We collect your personal information in order to:

Provide you with a service.
Collecting data regarding your blood sugar levels collated with your own diary entries, the information contained in your diary entries is entirely up to you but may include identifying other identifying information that is not defined in the above

We collect the minimal amount of data possible.

Providing information is optional, All though access to your contacts is required we do not store information about your contacts.

However we don't require that you use your real name when using Sugar Sugar. We do not verify your identity with any third party's

We keep your information safe by storing in a secure online database and there is very limited access to this data store.

Only high level employees have access under limited circumstances. No data will be given to third parties.

Appart from those specified you when you "Send Data" when you do so you are expressly giving your premission for us to send the data to the contact you provide, however they are made aware in the email that the data within should be considered private

Your data will be removed if you are an inactive user for two years.

You have the right to ask for a copy of any personal information we hold about you, and to ask for it to be corrected if you think it is wrong, or deleted. If you'd like to ask for a copy of your information, or to have it corrected, or deleted,

Please contact us at hello@talkingtools.nz

